

Dr. Indhira Piquion DNP, APRN, AGPCNP-BC

Owner of Caring Rose: Caring for you & your Event, LLC Dr. Piquion is originally from Haiti. Dr. Piquion received a High school diploma and LPN license at the age of 16. She graduated with her BSN at FAU Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing in 2014. She worked as a registered nurse with experience in acute, chronic, and hospice care. She worked in multiple units such as telemetry, medical-surgical, and step-down. She has experience as a staff nurse, preceptor for students, preceptor for new employees, charge nurse relief, quality council representative, and teacher's assistant. She is one of the first cohorts of the Florida Action Coalition Board service initiative program. She is the social media liaison for Sigma Iota Xi at-large Chapter. Dr. Piquion received her DNP in Adult-Gerontology at FAU Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing in 2018. Her passion is in primary care, education, and patient and family-centered care.

In her free time, she likes to attend church services, assist in fundraising activities, plan events, and interact with her friends and family. Dr. Piquion is the Owner of Caring Rose: Caring for you & your Event, LLC, an event planning company that focuses on celebrating significant moments in your life. Her focus is on celebrating health, wellness, birth, life, love, accomplishments, and you!