

Dr. Eva M. Francis
HC, MSN, CCRN, NEA-BC

Dr. Eva M. Francis is a distinguished nurse leader, healthcare executive, business consultant, and best-selling author dedicated to empowering healthcare and ministry leaders while advancing healthcare systems. Her extensive experience includes serving as Senior Administrative Director and Associate Vice President of Critical Care and Emergency Services at leading hospitals in South Florida, where she led transformative initiatives to improve hospital operations, clinical outcomes, and leadership development.

She is the Founder and CEO of Brilliant Healthcare Consulting Group and The Nurse Empowerment and Leadership Institute, through which she mentors, coaches, and equips healthcare professionals across South Florida and the Caribbean. Dr. Francis also hosts the annual Nurse Empowerment Conference, a premier event designed to foster growth in academic, leadership, and entrepreneurial pathways.

In addition, she is the founder of 'Get Well Lead Well', a nonprofit organization committed to helping Christians live purposefully and effectively, in alignment with their faith and calling.

Dr. Francis holds a BSN and MSN in Nursing Leadership and Administration from Florida Atlantic University. She has been honored with a Doctoral degree in Leadership and Ministry for her community service and leadership. Her numerous achievements have been recognized through awards such as the Florida Nurses Association Preceptorship Award, a Humanitarian Award, as well as multiple leadership awards.

A certified speaker and trainer with The John Maxwell Team, Dr. Francis is known for her inspirational, compassionate, and strategic leadership style. She began her nursing career in Jamaica and has trained and mentored thousands of healthcare professionals and leaders worldwide. A dedicated philanthropist, she annually awards scholarships to nursing students from single-parent and underserved communities and supports the elderly in her rural hometown in Jamaica.

Deeply committed to excellence and service, Dr. Francis lives by the principle that "To whom much is given, much is required". Please join me in welcoming this extraordinary and fearless leader—Dr. Eva M. Francis.
